HANDMADE DEVOTION

pacífico

r e s o r t 2 0 2 3

Pacífico is the story of a nautical journey on a sailboat that travels along the Asian coast and the Pacific. A physical journey where memories and traditions are recovered at each stop. It is the memory of markets, handcrafts, sunsets, flavors, beaches, art, gardens, maps, architecture, flowers, feelings, love, and a grand final party.

The collection is an album of compositions that illustrates the different states of art explored at each stop represented by each drop, seeking to create a surreal story full of visual richness for this resort season.

FIRST STOP - JAPANESE GARDENS

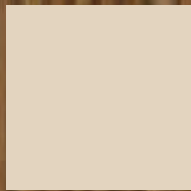

s u k i

Our first stop is in Japan. My love for nature and its inspiration makes me go through the Japanese gardens. A space that reflects the philosophical and religious perspective, a tradition that believes in the eternity of the soul and nature. It reflects not only beauty but also a singular world where natural, abstract, and asymmetric patterns come together.

Trees and flowers are chosen for their color and their symbolism. Pine, bamboo, cherry, maple, plum, willow, ginkgo, cypress, cedar, and moss. Seasonal flowers such as lilies, azaleas, hydrangeas, and wisteria.

At Agua Bendita, we create our own garden, a garden that represents us: 'Tsukiyama' with a touch of art nouveau. Feminine, vibrant and vintage, a palette of colors like ivory, lilac, and bamboo.

Suki is the power of intuition from its origin.

SECOND STOP - HAWAII

The second stop is inevitable. The surf shack and a van next to the beach, piña coladas and Hawaiian music in the background, the clichéd Hawaiian dream. My forever ritual: the sun, the beach, and the sea. The paradise of a utopian summer and unexpected beauty. The ideal Pacific destination.

A trip to the past, where summer is interpreted from the iconic Surf Vibe, retro and futuristic. Different kitsch Hawaiian flowers mixed with the undertones of the sea, nature, and the Hawaiian mountains. Flowers such as orchids, plumerias, ferns, and hibiscus, colors such as quartz, olive, bone white, sky, and jade.

Immerse yourself in this sea of flowers in a unique print that recovers Hawaiian feminine and delicate beauty.

Java is the blend of strong and transformative feminine energy.

THIRD STOP - JAPANESE ART

k a a w

The third stop on this trip is at an onsen, a hot spring. Upon entering, I find a poster of Kawarazaki Kodo. At every destination, I always have time and space to appreciate the history linked and directed by art. This art piece takes me back to the '60s and '70s.

Sketches, figures, patterns, contrasts, and flowers. Mixtures of colors and techniques. A groovy vibe with an unexpected romantic touch.

Off white, toffee, black, sky, jade, tangle. Neutral bases with maximalist colors create disruptive elements.

Kaaw is maximalist, eclectic, and trendy.

FOURTH STOP - MALAYSIA

joo bah

Any journey and exploration bring Joy; in other words, Joo Bah!

I have learned to surprise myself like a child, laugh, enjoy, and find beauty in the details. Simple drawings, mixing primary colors, dancing on the beach, Joo Bah!

It is a collection inspired by our #ABkids where they are the center of attention. A fun and cheerful drop. Prints full of shapes where new visions of our colorful handmade are explored.

These pieces remind us of the importance of living with joy.

Joo Bah is colorful and maximalist, with that smile that draws all eyes.

SIXTH STOP - INDONESIA

lula

Modern and exotic. A sailboat trip full of color. Paradise with powerful flowers that heal and wildflowers. Prints and geometric figures, the atypical, the unknown. The brightness of the golden sun, the sea, the striking colors, and contrasts.

Unexpected pieces with an air of the 70s. The mixture of floral and geometric elements. A drop that is perceived as colorful, vibrant, and retro.

Dijon, olive, magenta, canvas, and teal.

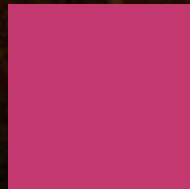

Lula is the DNA of Agua Bendita, feminine, colorful, intuitive, confident, and sexy.

SEVENTH STOP - HONOLULU

h o n o l u l u

There is no trip without an unexpected summer love! A Hawaiian dream on the beach with the surf cliché. The symbolism of the sun and the connection with natural elements, the salt in the hair, the warm skin under the sun, and the characteristic smell of beer.

A drop made especially for men. Shirts, shorts, hoodies, t-shirts, pants, caps, bucket hats, backpacks, and towels create a men's line where certain pieces from #ABgirl and #ABfamily mix and match.

Honolulu is boho, maximalist, and meets the imaginary ideal of our world, the #ABmen world.

EIGHT STOP - CAMBODIA

aine

The key stop to the dreamiest hotel. Desert and raw. With a Japanese wooden house and a swimming pool with fresh water, I am the flower in this destination, along with the flowers and fruits that grow around the hotel. Flowers like jasmine, plumeria, and romdoul bring life to this place—fresh air, a space that generates tranquility full of romanticism.

This drop mixes textile inspiration with botany for a Maxi Boho proposal. Canvas, sky, lime, dijon, peppermint and rose.

Aine is the gold of the sun, the colors of flowers, tapestries, patterns, and tiles.

NINTH AND LAST STOP - THAILAND

vini

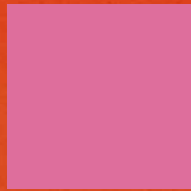

Vini is my last stop, in Thailand. A final party where I say goodbye to this exploratory journey. Mixtures of the night, the beach, music, friends, and Aperol Spritz. The colors of the sea mix with the colors of the sunset and the night, the shapes of the wave and the sky. The taste of a cocktail, the sexy and the risky.

A disruptive visual proposal based on irregular chromatic effects.

Vini is energetic and always on the go, not afraid to be the center of attention.

A photograph of a man surfing on a wave at sunset. The man is shirtless and wearing dark shorts, riding a blue surfboard. He is leaning forward with his arms outstretched. The water is splashing around the base of the wave. In the background, three other people are visible in the water, some with surfboards. The sky is a warm, golden color, and the horizon is visible in the distance.
